

BC TRANSPLANT EDUCATION DAYS 2021

Challenges in Donation & Transplantation

October 28—29, 2021

7:45 AM-1:00 PM PST

Zoom

DONATION DAY — OCTOBER 28

Each session includes an opportunity for Q&A and a brief break.

7:45—8:00 am

BC Transplant Welcome Address

8:00—9:00 am

Challenging cases: experiences from the ICU

George Isac

Medical Director, ICU, Vancouver General Hospital

9:00—10:00 am

Presumed consent: the Nova Scotia experience

Cynthia Isenor

Health Services Director, Critical Care Program, Nova Scotia Health Authority

10:00—11:00 am

Breakout sessions

Breakout session A

Lung management

Bobbi Paquette

Organ Donation Specialist, BC Transplant

Breakout session B

What do I say? Psychosocial support of donor families at bedside

Jordy Hermiston

Program Facilitator, Family Services, BC Transplant

Breakout session C

Prognostication of hypoxic ischemic brain injury

Colin Casault

Physician, Critical Care, Vancouver Island Health Authority

11:00 am—12:00 pm

Religious and cultural sensitivity at the end of life

Brian Carwana

Executive Director, Encounter World Religions Centre

12:00—12:30 pm

Lived experience with transplantation

Shelby Gielen

Two-time liver transplant recipient

TRANSPLANTATION DAY — OCTOBER 29

Each session includes an opportunity for Q&A and a brief break.

7:45—8:00 am	BC Transplant Welcome Address
8:00—9:00 am	BRIDGE to transplant: improving access to living donor kidney transplantation for indigenous populations Jag Gill Nephrologist, St. Paul's Hospital
9:00—10:00 am Breakout sessions	Breakout session A Cancer management post-transplant: immunologic surveillance and immunotherapies Chris Blosser Nephrologist, University of Washington Medical Centre  Breakout session B Creating Voxe: an electronic patient-reported outcome measure platform to capture patients' voices Samantha Anthony Social Worker, Transplant and Regenerative Medicine, SickKids Sarah Pol Clinical Research Project Coordinator, Transplant and Regenerative Medicine, SickKids  Breakout session C Extending cold ischemic times: organ preservation options David Harriman Urologist, Vancouver General Hospital
10:00—11:00 am	COVID in transplantation: a Canadian perspective Deepali Kumar Physician, Transplant Infectious Diseases, University Health Network Atul Humar Director, Ajmera Transplant Centre, University Health Network
11:00 am—12:00 pm	Exploring ethical issues in transplantation - consent, capacity and conscience Alice Virani Director, Ethics Service, Provincial Health Services Authority
12:00 pm—12:30 pm	Oncology screening in post-renal transplant patients: a retrospective review of adherence to screening guidelines in a Canadian health region Faran Rashid MD Candidate, UBC Faculty of Medicine
12:30—1:00 pm	Lived experience with donation Olivia Hayne Sister of organ donor Alistair Hayne